

A TOTAL WORKFORCE DELIVERY SYSTEM

AIDT's Total Workforce Delivery System has provided thousands of skilled, motivated employees to Alabama industries since 1971. AIDT understands the impact well trained employees have on your bottom line, and the impact you have on the community you call home.

Providing a quality workforce for Alabama businesses requires a quick and complete response. It also requires a system you can trust. That's why our Total Workforce Delivery System is ISO 9001:2015 certified.

From lead time planning to program delivery, AIDT delivers our comprehensive training program to you and the trainees at no cost. That's why at AIDT, We Are Workforce Development.

FOR MORE INFORMATION ABOUT HOW WE CAN HELP YOU GROW IN ALABAMA, VISIT OUR WEBSITE AT www.aidt.edu OR CONTACT US AT info@aidt.edu.

AIDT PROGRAMS

Alabama Workforce Training Center - Trains Alabama citizens in the construction trades and in several areas of manufacturing, all based on the industry needs in the state.

AIDT Maritime Training Center - A multipurpose training and education facility, featuring high bay welding shops, classrooms, and a computer lab designed specifically to meet the growing demand for industrial related training for the southern region of Alabama.

<http://www.maritime.aidt.edu>

The Alabama Robotics Technology Park (RTP) - A state-of-the-art facility focused on training and educating citizens in emerging Robotics and Automation technologies.

<http://www.alabamartp.org>

EMPACT (Entertainment Media Production and Crew Training) - A program focused on training people in the Film and Television industry for "below the line" jobs such as: Camera Operators, Set Construction, and Boom Operators.

<http://www.empactalabama.org>

Forest Products Development Center - Provides technical information, analytical assistance, and consulting services to existing and prospective industry regarding technology evaluation, resource availability, and market suitability of forest-based business opportunities.

On The Job - A weekly television show that provides an educational and informative outlet designed to give Alabama citizens a look at jobs available to them and the education and skills required to get these jobs and improve their lives.

<http://www.onthejobtv.org>

Ready to Work (RTW) - Provides a career pathway for adults with limited education and employment experience at 71 sites by 20 colleges. AIDT and the Alabama Department of Postsecondary Education operate the program.

<http://www.alabamareadytowork.org>

MRWTC- The Montgomery Regional Workforce Training Center provides skill upgrades and technical training at no cost for employees of businesses and industry in the Montgomery River Region. The MRWTC training focuses on Information Technology, Manufacturing Fundamentals, and Workforce Skills

<http://www.mrwtc.org>

Apprenticeship Alabama- Businesses who participate in Apprenticeship Alabama do so at no cost, and receive a generous tax abatement for hiring Apprentices under the program. This "earn while you learn" program currently focuses on growing Alabama's workforce through industry sectors such as Healthcare, Construction, Information Technology, Distribution, Logistics/Transportation, and Advanced Manufacturing.

<http://www.apprenticeshipalabama.org>